Palm Beach Paw Spa, a dog daycare and pet hotel in Jupiter's Pennock Industrial Park, is currently collecting pet supplies to benefit Safe Harbor Animal Sanctuary and Hospital. This year the pet residents at Safe Harbor, a not for profit no-kill shelter, are asking for Purina One dry dog and cat food as well as toys to entertain themselves throughout the holiday season.

The animal shelter also needs bedding, bath towels, bleach, paper towels and cash donations.

"This is the third year we've collected much needed supplies for Safe Harbor," said Tracy McCord, owner of the Palm Beach Paw Spa. "Each year generous people from all over our area have brought in hundreds of pounds of dog and cat food, cleaning and bedding supplies and well as an abundance of toys, treats, collars, leashes and specialty items."

Palm Beach Paw Spa will be accepting donations from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday through Friday and 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturday until January 15th, 2008.

Palm Beach Paw Spa is an upscale dog daycare and pet hotel founded in 2004. The facility offers group play and an enjoyable "home away from home" for its canine clients. To find the Palm Beach Paw Spa, simply call (561) 741-0022 or visit their Web site at: www.palmbeachpawspa.com
